Underpinning legislation

The following table is intended to set out the key legislation that is relevant to our asset compliance. It is not possible to include every piece of legislation that is relevant to every scenario / circumstance within this table. Whilst this table will assist in guiding staff to the key legislation, staff should consider on a case-by-case basis the legislation that may be relevant to their work, activities and / or area.

Where a section of the table is highlighted green, this means that the legislation will definitely apply and staff and / or contractors will need to ensure compliance with the duties set out within it. Where a section of the table is highlighted amber, this means that the legislation may apply depending on the circumstances (e.g. if certain height thresholds are met or certain activities are being conducted). In these instances, those with responsibilities for that area or the work being conducted that is relevant to that area, will need to ensure they consider whether the legislation applies and identify any enhanced or additional obligations they may have to comply with as a result.
